HARTLEY PENSIONS RECEIVES FIVE-STAR MONEYFACTS RATING FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

London, United Kingdom – Wilton, the Mayfair adviser, is delighted to announce that their pension services arm, Hartley Pensions Ltd, has been awarded five-star ratings from Moneyfacts Group PLC for three of their SIPP products. Hartley is the only pension provider on the list to have been awarded a five-star rating for three SIPP products.

Moneyfacts is one of the UK's leading providers of personal finance data and their five-star rating system is based on an annual assessment that helps consumers identify products with 'added quality' and 'exceptional' features. Moneyfacts

Hartley has continued to expand with the recent acquisition of Greyfriars Asset Management LLP, where the company has been working diligently to integrate former Greyfriars' clients into Hartley.

Hartley Pensions CEO, Denis McHugh commented: "As the only pension provider to have been awarded a five-star rating for three of our SIPP products for a second year in a row, we believe this is a validation to the quality of our products and services that we provide our clients."

Clients remain at the forefront of all Wilton activity as they continue to build and develop their innovative client portal that will allow clients full online access to their SIPPs, as well as to other low-cost platforms.

Hartley has provided pension administration services for over 35 years and upon joining Wilton in 2015, has expanded the range of products and services available to clients to provide innovative and flexible wealth management solutions.
