The RL360 SIPP is a registered pension scheme (PSTR 20002890RK) established by Hartley Pensions Ltd. under one master trust deed and set of rules (copies of which are available on request), and is registered in accordance with the Finance Act 2004. The RL360 SIPP is provided and operated by Hartley Pensions Limited, a UK registered company under number 09469576 which is authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) to provide regulated products and services. The trustee of the SIPP is Hartley Pensions Trustees Limited, a UK registered company under number 09962237.

RISK

Investments can fall as well as rise and you may find that the value of your RL360 SIPP does not meet your investment expectations.

Past performance of investments is not necessarily an indication of future performance.

You should also consider how long you are required to hold a particular investment and if this is suitable for your lifestyle and investment aims. If investing outside the UK for example, you may experience higher dealing costs and may be subject to varying exchange rates. You should also be aware that the investment/s you choose may pose a liquidity risk and you should consider the timespan of your investment/s and how easily you can disinvest should you wish to do so.

We do not give financial or tax advice under any circumstances. We may be asked to pass on information to you from a particular investment platform; this information should not be construed as us giving advice or recommendations of any sort. With the freedom to choose your own investments comes responsibility; you should make sure that you are comfortable making investment decisions. Please note that all of our SIPPs are denominated in British Pounds therefore you may experience bank charges when investing in products with a different currency. You may incur additional external charges depending on the particular investment provider you choose. Our charging schedule is on page 4.

WHAT IS A SIPP?

A Self-Invested Personal Pension or SIPP is a tax-efficient* investment vehicle through which you can invest in a wide range of UK and international investment products. A SIPP offers up to 45% tax relief* on contributions. Any investment gains that arise from your RL360 SIPP are free from income, dividend and capital gains tax.

WHO CAN OPEN A RL360 SIPP?

The RL360 SIPP is open to both UK and Non UK residents on an advised basis.

HOW DO I OPEN A RL360 SIPP?

To open a RL360 SIPP you need to:

- read our RL360 SIPP Terms and Conditions, this Key Features Document and any other documentation which we provide you with very carefully. All of our terms are on our website: www.hartleypensions.com
- be aware of the risks attached to a Hartley SIPP and be comfortable with the fact that the value of your investments could drop as well as rise
- complete and send to us the relevant application form
- either transfer an eligible existing pension (see details below) or make a first contribution to your SIPP.

By choosing to open a RL360 SIPP you are agreeing to be bound by our Terms and Conditions and the rules of the Hartley Pension SIPP Scheme and to make payments as and when requested.

CAN I CHANGE MY MIND?

Yes, you have a legal right to cancel the establishment of your SIPP, within 30 days of when you receive our welcome pack which contains a cancellation notice. Please note that any fees incurred during the time between the establishment of the SIPP and the cancellation will be borne by you. Similarly, any losses on investments are borne by you.

CAN I TRANSFER MY EXISTING PENSION TO A RL360 SIPP?

In most cases, yes. We accept transfers in from HM Revenue and Customs recognised schemes. However, defined benefit schemes (e.g. final salary schemes) generally prevent transfers to a SIPP unless you have received personal advice from an adviser who is regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority who holds the appropriate pension transfer qualifications and we may insist you take advice to confirm it is in your interests to transfer such pensions. Please contact us if you wish to transfer your existing pension to your RL360 SIPP.

Please note that your pension provider may charge you to transfer out of their scheme.

HOW MUCH MONEY CAN I CONTRIBUTE IN A YEAR AND WHAT TAX RELIEF WILL I RECEIVE ON CONTRIBUTIONS?

There is no limit on the amount of money you can contribute to your SIPP each year but the amount you contribute may have tax implications. The contribution amounts are based on your UK relevant earnings. If you have no relevant UK earnings then you are still able to make contributions up to £3,600 each year. If you do have relevant UK earnings then you can receive tax relief on contributions up to the amount you earn, to a maximum of £40,000. We will claim tax relief at the basic rate (currently 20%) from HMRC on a monthly basis.

However, if you make contributions above the current limit of £40,000, you may incur a tax charge via HMRC's 'annual allowance tax charge'. The annual allowance is set each year by the UK Government and therefore may change in the future.

Please seek specialist tax advice if you have specific tax concerns. All contributions made into your SIPP are subject to a correctly completed contributions form which can be found on our website, www.hartleypensions.com.

IS THERE A MINIMUM CONTRIBUTION LEVEL?

If you transfer your existing pension to a RL360 SIPP there is no requirement to make any contribution. There is no minimum level for one off or regular monthly contributions.

WHO CAN CONTRIBUTE TO MY SIPP?

You can make personal contributions, other people can make contributions e.g. your spouse or parents, and your employer can make contributions.

CAN I HAVE MORE THAN ONE SIPP?

We would not open two RL360 SIPP for you but it is possible to have another SIPP with a different provider. If you run two SIPPs concurrently you may have to pay a tax relief charge to HMRC if you have received more than the allocated tax relief in any one year.

WHO MANAGES THE INVESTMENT PORTFOLIO HELD IN MY RL360 SIPP?

You will be required to appoint a financial adviser to manage your portfolio. We are not investment advisers nor managers, nor do we give any financial or tax advice.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I CHOOSE A NEW OR UNUSUAL INVESTMENT?

Our Investment Committee will consider your case and decide if the investment is suitable to be held within a RL360 SIPP.

HOW CAN I CHECK THE VALUE OF MY PENSION?

If you have access you can view your SIPP value by logging into your client portal or you can phone Hartley during office hours (9am to 5pm) and they will be able to tell you the current value of your fund. We will send you a yearly statement for your records. It is also prudent to review your SIPP on a regular basis to ensure that it is the correct product for your investment needs.

HOW OFTEN IS MY SIPP VALUED?

For reporting and legislation purposes we require at least annual valuations on the chosen investment under your SIPP plus the availability of ad hoc valuations for events such as benefit calculations.

Fees incurred for obtaining the valuation can be paid or reimbursed from cash funds in the pension scheme upon receipt of an appropriate invoice and providing that sufficient funds are available.

In the event valuations are not provided, the value of the investment will be noted as NIL until an accurate valuation is made available.

WHAT IS THE LIFETIME ALLOWANCE?

This is the amount that you can receive over your lifetime before being liable for a tax charge. The current lifetime allowance can be found in the Frequently Asked Questions section on our website.

Your SIPP may be subject to additional tax charges at the point you withdraw funds if your pension is valued at more than the lifetime allowance.

WHEN CAN I ACCESS MY SIPP?

The earliest age you can start taking money from your SIPP is 55 years (due to rise to 57 in 2028) unless you are in serious ill health, as defined by the Finance Act 2004.

HOW CAN I TAKE MY BENEFITS?

You can drawdown up to 25% of your SIPP tax free from the age of 55 as a Pension Commencement Lump Sum (PCLS), but the remaining pot must form a 'drawdown plan'. From 2028 the age you can withdraw a PCLS will rise to 57 years. After taking a PCLS, you can opt to have complete flexibility (known as 'flexi-access') as to how you drawdown from your drawdown plan (i.e. any combination of lump sums or monthly payment), but each drawdown will be taxed at your normal income tax rate, whether you take further lump sums or a monthly income. As soon as you take any money from your SIPP a restriction on any future tax relievables* money purchase contributions to your pot applies of £4,000 a year.

Alternatively, you can take money direct from your pot without having to put the money into a drawdown plan and 25% of this sum will be tax free. This is called an 'uncrystallised funds pension lump sum' ('UFPLS'). You can take one or more UFPLS payments and these can be regular or irregular payments. Payment of a UFPLS will trigger a restriction on any future tax relievables* money purchase contributions to your pot to £4,000 a year.

Across all pension arrangements, you may be able to take up to three small pots subject to the SIPP Value being under £10,000 and as long as when taken it means all the SIPP funds are exhausted. 25% will be tax free and 75% will be subject to marginal rate income tax in the same way as UFPLS. Taking small pot payments does not trigger a restriction on future tax relievables* money contributions to your pot.

Taking money from your pot may erode the capital value of your SIPP and could result in a lower income than anticipated in the future. You should take advice from an adviser authorised by the Financial Conduct Authority or suitably qualified tax adviser as to the best method to take your SIPP benefit in your particular circumstances, before making any such decisions.

AFTER I HAVE TAKEN PCLS, DOES MY PENSION STILL BENEFIT FROM TAX RELIEF?

Yes. If you are in flexi access-drawdown, until you drawdown from your drawdown plan, you receive tax relief on contributions to your pension up to your annual personal allowance.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I AM IN CAPPED DRAWDOWN?

If you had started to take payments from your pension prior to the April 2015 pension freedoms, your pension is designated as capped drawdown. This will mean that you are allowed to take income from your pension up to a certain limit each year. You are entitled to keep your pension as capped drawdown or if you wish to have more freedom, you can convert to a flexi-access drawdown arrangement meaning that there would be no capped income limit. You will need to consider implications such as the Money Purchase Annual Allowance and a different charging structure.

DO YOU OFFER ANNUITIES?

No. If you are looking to purchase an annuity, you must transfer all or part of your pension to an annuity provider.

IS SIPP INCOME SUBJECT TO NATIONAL INSURANCE?

No.

WHAT HAPPENS TO MY SIPP IF I DIE?

When we are notified of your death by your personal representative, we will ask for a copy of your death certificate. We will carry out due diligence on the beneficiary and then discuss options with him or her. Please note that the trustee retains ultimate discretion over the distribution of your pension, despite a beneficiary being named.

If you die before you reach the age of 75, your beneficiary can choose:

- to take a tax free* lump sum or transfer the SIPP into their own name or an external pension scheme. If you die after the age of 75, your beneficiary can choose to take the whole pot as a lump sum but this will be subject to a tax charge at the marginal rate of the beneficiary; or.

If you die after the age of 75, your beneficiary can choose to:

- take the whole pot as a lump sum but this will be subject to a tax charge at the marginal rate of the beneficiary; or.
- to transfer the SIPP into a pension arrangement in their own name which can be used to take a income via drawdown any income taken will be subject to income tax at the beneficiary's normal rate.

DO I HAVE TO CHOOSE A BENEFICIARY TO RECEIVE MY SIPP IF I DIE?

No. Clients normally choose a beneficiary e.g. a spouse or a child. This is not legally required but we strongly recommend that you do tell us of your wishes to help ensure we consider paying the correct beneficiaries.
